HOLMES INVITED

Miners of Sub-District Arranging for Big Feature Outing

CONTESTS TO BE HELD

J. A. Holmes, director of the United States Bureau of Mines, is to be invited to make the chief address to miners of sub-district No. 3 of District No. 5, when they hold their annual outing on August 22, at Eldora park. In addition to speaking, first-aid contests that will be an entirely new feature introduced at such an outing, will be held. Contests will be open to all first-aid teams in the United States. It is believed that Director Holmes will accept the invitation. The outing will be made an occasion slightly different from those which have preceded it in former years. William Hargest, of Monongahela, is president of the sub-district committee and Albert Welsh of Courtney is the secretary of the committee.

Several first-aid teams along the Monongahela valley and interior parts of the surrounding counties have been interested in the first-aid contests. Ellsworth and Marianna teams, it is stated, will be entered and both are crack teams. Teams from the California region are expected to be entered, as well as teams from various other parts of Western Pennsylvania.

HEAVY FINE IS PLACED ON SUSIE AND HER FRIEND

Susie Smith, colored, an old offender and a white man were arrested at the Smith woman's home on McKean avenue Sunday morning at 1:30 o'clock by the police. They both plead guilty before Burgess S. L. Woodward and each were fined $25 and costs, which made a total of $54. They were notified that the next time that they are caught together they will be sent to the workhouse.

The Smith woman was notified to get out of town and informed that if she did not get out she would be sent to the workhouse. An effort is being made to rid the town of all undesirable persons.

Six other prisoners faced the Burgess this morning. They were all charged with drunkenness. The usual fines and costs were assessed.

"PERILS OF PAULINE" AT THE LYRIC TODAY

The big attraction at the Lyric Theatre today is the fifth story in the "Perils of Pauline." "The Lure of the Pitt" a Lubin drama in two parts, which is taken from the stock exchange, is another feature for this afternoon. "Pie for Sophie," a western comedy is another good picture that is being shown.

Canoeist Is Drowned

Monongahela River Claims Victim at California Sunday Afternoon

John Frazer, aged 28, of California was drowned in the Monongahela river near the California State Normal school about 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

In company with Harry Anderson, also of California, Frazer was out canoeing on the river. In some manner as yet unexplained the canoe was upset. Frazer was unable to swim and went down almost immediately. Anderson swam to shore, having lost sight of his companion when the canoe went over. He quickly gave the alarm and a crowd collected at the river bank. Boats were sent out, but no trace of the unfortunate canoeist could be found. The river was dragged and the body recovered about an hour later.

Frazer was married and had two children. He was employed at the Crescent mine of the River Coal company. It is not known how the accident occurred and the case is under close investigation.

AUTOIST IS HURT

William R. Davis of Charleroi Injured at Washington

HAPPENING PECULIAR

William R. Davis, aged 25 of Charleroi, is in the Washington hospital with an ugly scalp wound, a severe contusion of the right knee and other minor but painful hurts that were received when he was hurled from an automobile about 6:30 o'clock Sunday morning six miles west of Washington on the National Pike. His injuries are not considered dangerous unless his wounds become infected.

Davis was a member of a party of four Charleroi men who were on an automobile trip to Wheeling. The car was a four-passenger vehicle owned and driven by J. G. Albright, of Charleroi. They were speeding along the pike near the home of Henry Behringer, when the machine struck the telford bed of a section of the road that is being improved. Three tires were flattened and the machine was brought to a sudden stop.

Davis was hurled from the back seat onto the rugged stones. He evidently struck on his head, his scalp being cut from between the eyes to his left ear. Twenty stitches were required to close the wound. He also received a bad contusion on the right knee that required 10 stitches.

Dr. Edwards was summoned to the scene and took Davis to the Washington hospital in his automobile.

The damaged car was towed to Washington and the other three members of the party, none of whom was injured, left for their homes in Charleroi on a street car.

EDITOR EDWARD C. NIVER DIES AT BROCKWAYVILLE

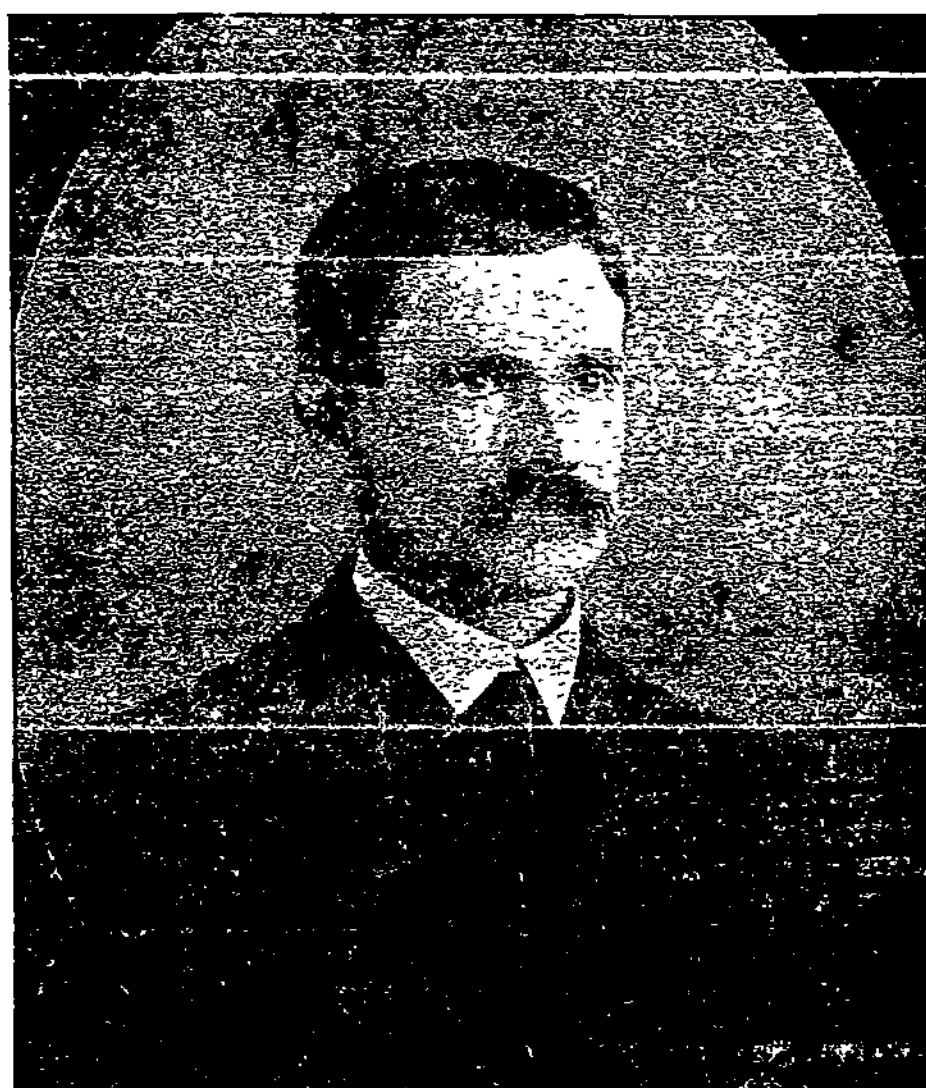

Mail Publishing Company Head Answers Summons Late Sunday Afternoon After Protracted Illness—Left Here in May

CAREER OF TRULY "BIG" MAN CLOSED

Edward Cyrus Niver, aged 52 years, president of the Mail Publishing company and managing editor of the Charleroi Mail and Charleroi Mirror, died following an illness of about one year's duration, at Brockwayville Sunday afternoon at 4:40 o'clock. His demise occurred in the town where he was born and where he spent the early years of his life. His widow, Mrs. Katherine Niver and one son, George survive. Both were at his bedside at the time of his death, as were also other close relatives. Arrivals and of the Pittsburgh Dispatch. He was placed in charge finally of the exchange department. No better tribute could be paid to his ability than that by an associate at that time, who pronounced him "the greatest exchange editor the Dispatch ever had." He made the exchange department a distinct feature of the Dispatch, and put human interest into it that never before had been there.

From the Dispatch Mr. Niver went to the Pittsburgh Post as an assignment man. Then he came to Char-rangements have been made to hold the funeral at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at Brockwayville.

The death of Mr. Niver closes the career of a truly "big" man. He received his early education in the common schools of Jefferson county and while yet in his teens took his first employment in the lumber camps of the northern part of the state. He remained in this work but a comparatively short time, and then interested himself in the printing trade. Mr. Niver worked as a printer at Erie, Nashville, Tenn., Cleveland, Ohio, Wheeling, W. Va., and Brooklyn, N. Y., at various times, acquiring a substantial education from practical experience as well as study. Always a shrewd observer with a nose for investigation he made much of his opportunities.

Eventually Mr. Niver and Bion H. Butler, now of North Carolina, located in Brockwayville, establishing a newspaper there. They conducted this successful journal for some time. Then Mr. Niver went to Pittsburgh, having in the meantime wed Miss Katherine Murphy, a Jefferson county young woman who was the daughter of a pioneer railroad contractor.

In Pittsburgh he took work on the roi. In Pittsburgh Mr. Niver was associated with some of the best newspaper men this part of the country has produced.

Mr. Niver's arrival in Charleroi was heralded by his purchase of the weekly Mirror in 1902 from H. C. Wilson. Promptly taking charge he energetically turned his attention to the making of this newspaper the best weekly in the Monongahela valley. His success in his endeavors was notable, for the Mirror during his administration was one of the most readable papers in Western Pennsylvania.

In 1910 Mr. Niver acquired an interest in the Mail Publishing company. The Mirror and Mail from that time to this have been published from the same office with Mr. Niver in the capacity of managing editor.

Not only as a thorough newspaper man with a fine news instinct was Mr. Niver, but he had a reputation as one of the leading editorial writers of Pennsylvania. His editorial utterances have been widely quoted, and he was a leader in numerous movements for the public uplift. As a po-

Killed by Mine Cars

Smithton Man Dies at Charleroi-Monessen Hospital Shortly After Accident

John Gatch, aged 18 years, single a Russian who was a driver in the Wick Haven mine of the Pittsburgh Coal company near Smithton, was caught between one and one of the mine ribs Saturday morning and so seriously injured that he died at 2:15 o'clock Saturday afternoon in the Charleroi-Monessen hospital, where he was brought in an automobile immediately after the accident, arriving there at noon.

Mr. Gatch was badly crushed about the chest and abdomen. He is survived by his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gatch, of Jacobs Creek. The body was removed to Frye's undertaking rooms where it was prepared for burial and was later delivered to an undertaker in Smithton. The funeral will be held Tuesday.

FIVE HURT IN WRECK

Freight Collision at Monongahela Results Seriously

MATCH FAILS TO SAVE

Five men were injured in a bad freight wreck which occurred about 10:15 Sunday evening near New Eagle station on the Monongahela division of the Pennsylvania railroad.

The injured. E. B. MALLORY, conductor of Fair Oaks; concussion of brain, head cut and body bruised.

B. J. GALLEGHER, Elrama, painfully bruised and cut.

E. J. BAYER, Pittsburg, eyes full of cinders and cut, recovery of sight doubtful.

S. C. KLECKMER, Elrama, jaw broken, body bruised.

STANLEY W. BALL, Elrama, badly cut about head.

Shortly after 10 o'clock a long freight train of 134 cars was going south. When not far from New Eagle station a portion of the air brake attachment broke so that when the brake was applied the front part of the train responded but the rear part was not slowed, causing the cars to buckle and throwing a number of them over on the north bound track.

At the same time an engine and caboose were coming north on a clear block. Mike McGinty of Monongahela had heard the noise of the smash-up and hurried to flag the approaching engine and caboose. He had no lantern but lighted matches and waved them before the oncoming engine. The engineer, however could not understand the meaning of the feeble blaze and a few moments later sent his engine crashing into the debris. Neither fireman nor engineer was hurt, all five of the injured men being passengers in the caboose which was upset.

BIG DEAL REPORTED

IS NEAR CHARLEROI

It is believed that a large coal tract in Fallowfield township near Charleroi, will be developed in the near future by the Warner-Leonard Coal company, which will give this section another industry.

The deed for the coal tract which has just been placed on record shows that Hannah E. and Lewis Cason and Sarah B. Morris are conveying to William H. Warner a tract of 187,167 acres of the Pittsburgh or River vein of coal. The Freeport vein is reserved. The consideration is given as $205,045.85.

Accompanying the deed is a mortgage for $150,202.61, there having been paid down on the deal the sum of $25,743.24. Under the terms of the mortgage there is to be paid another $25,743.23, within one year, without interest. After that there is to be paid $51,486.48, each year until the balance of the principal is paid, with interest.

MASS MEETING AT SCHOOL BUILDING WEDNESDAY NIGHT

The advisability of a bond issue of $70,000 or $75,000 for paving the streets in the hill district will be fully discussed and considered by a mass meeting of the citizens of Charleroi, which will be held in the high school auditorium Wednesday evening.

The Business Men's association has been considering the matter for some time and it is believed that the bond issue would be a good thing for the town. The hill streets need paving badly and the borough is not able to pave them without a bond issue.

SPEAKING OF JUSTICE.

If some of our noisy agitators would turn their attention to real reforms and to the establishment of real justice in our country they would probably turn their attention to some of the very political office holders whose voices are loudest in the chorus of general protest, says the Erie Dispatch. Some of the most pernicious evils of our day are practically unnoticed. A Philadelphia newspaper calls attention to one in its city. There is no greater danger in the community than the power of the law in the hands of unscrupulous and irresponsible men. The magistrate's constable whose sole conception of his oath of office is an acceptance of a choice privilege to "shake down" unfortunate—and too many of them regard the office in that light—is a dangerous factor in the community. The private detective who thinks his license or his badge is his authority by which he can threaten and coerce his victims into a "settlement" is a menace to the community as well as to the individual he preys upon.

It is conceivable that this summary may be made to apply to cities other than Philadelphia also. There is a fine brand of justice purveyed in many a venal magistrate's office.

NEGLECT COSTLY.

Because Monessen has a lot of worn fire hose as part of its fire fighting equipment, and practically all hose houses in the hill district, its citizens may suffer a cancellation of their fire insurance, or at least be compelled to undergo the hardship of having their insurance deficiency rates advanced.

Monessen's fire department, like Charleroi's is volunteer and apparatus is maintained after a similar plan. But it seems there has been neglect somewhere. Now Monessen may have to foot the bill.

That's the way with neglect. It is always costly. Yet it beats all how a town is forever discovering this without getting anywhere in the general scheme of improvement.

CHARLEROI GETS BEST OF CONTEST

Perhaps the most interesting contest of the season was the one between the Charleroi and the Monongahela Valley baseball teams. The contest was held at Charleroi, Pa., on Sunday, September 12, 1914. The Charleroi team, managed by J. J. Niver, defeated the Monongahela Valley team, managed by J. J. Niver, by a score of 12 to 6.

Events transpired in the fifth inning Belle Vernon grabbed two runs this session that, added to their two already in captivity, aroused them to a pitch of unexpected enthusiasm. Their enthusiasm was short lived.

Charleroi batsmen came to the fore in their half of the fifth and with Kuhn starting it, lambasted that horsehide for keeps. Seven strong hits were tallied that meant seven big scores.

Belle Vernon gleaned two runs on 3 hits in the eighth inning, but just a session before that time Charleroi had tallied three runs on four hits. One run in the eighth for Charleroi ended their part of the struggle. The score:

ical observer and judge of conditions he had no superior.

In Charleroi Mr. Niver was known as the best kind of citizen and as a broad man of wonderful attainments. His accomplishments were all due to persistent effort. He was one of the organizers of the Community club idea.

The father of Mr. Niver was Dr. W. C. Niver, one of the pioneer physicians of Jefferson county, who died in 1893. His mother, Mrs. S. M. Niver died only lately, in February of this year. Five sisters, with his widow and son survive. They are Mrs. W. C. Curry of Andrews, N. C.; Mrs. T. J. Emigh of McKeesport and Florence. Lucy and Mary Niver of Brockwayville.

Mr. Niver first took ill in the summer of 1913. A trip to Lake Chautauqua failed as a means for recuperation. Examination of his physical condition by skilled surgeons resulted in him being sent to a Pittsburgh hospital in August of last year for an operation for stomach trouble. When he emerged from there after a particularly severe ordeal doctors gravely diagnosed his ailment as cancer of the stomach, and said he could not live. However, he rallied, and with a zest again took up his editorial work. He appeared at his last

HILL TOPS ENJOY SUNDAY FESTIVITIES

The Charleroi Hill Top baseball team had an afternoon of sports Sunday. It is estimated that more than 75 of the young men of the hill district were present. The afternoon was spent with contests and a base ball game between the Born Athletic club and the Jones Sluggers. The score was seven to three in favor of the Jones Sluggers.

Joe Laurie won the sack race. Ernest Fivri won the potato race. Fivri and Laurie won the three legged race. Steve Vrish and Marten Duting won the wheelbarrow race. The contest for the best looking young men was won by Mike McGuire and Marshall Born.

It wasn't long until a secondary operation was found to be necessary to correct trouble incidental to his chief ailment. This left him weak.

From that time forth Mr. Niver went down hill rapidly until in May, with Mrs. Niver, he left for his old home community. Weaker and weaker he became until death on Sunday relieved him of his sufferings.

Mr. Niver was a member of Charleroi lodge, No. 494, B. P. O. Elks. He was actively associated with the Monongahela Valley Press Association. These two organizations have arranged to send representatives to the funeral. A party will be made up from the Monongahela valley to attend the funeral.

TWENTY FIVE THOUSAND DOLLAR SALE

FOR JULY & AUGUST

Our Great Clearance is now on in dead earnest. We have invited you to share in the many special Bargains at this time. There is a Real Reason for this sale, and we are willing for you to know it. Our town is fairly flooded with Pittsburgh papers and these papers are filled with advertising to the overflow point--every artifice known to the advertising trade has been resorted to--to draw people to these big stores, it is a case of "the survival of the fittest" but what about the Expense? It must come out of the merchandise, we know very well that prices are often cut for a day or a week, but we have been told a hundred times by some of our patrons that shop in the City--that Goods that are Right are No Cheaper in the City than here--but the variety is large, so we have decided to go into an advertising campaign to last until August 31st, and offer you in and all over the store Clearance Sale, immense quantities of dependable merchandise--so that you can say your home store does make opportunities to buy at Bargain Prices. Now it is not possible to sell all merchandise at a loss all the time, yet we are offering wonderful lots of merchandise at a heavy loss and it your gain, we are trying hard to render service and to sell you the right kind of merchandise--Again we say, it is the time to buy, the savings are real, we are trying to offer you as good as the city, we will try to serve you as well--We want to clean our shelves of all surplus lots and pay up all our bills and start the Fall with a clean sheet--It is determination to fight it out on these lines, it is your opportunity to save, all things being equal.

BURGLAR NOTHING BUT SEA TURTLE

A "burglar," who gave the entire police force of Bentleyville and a posse of armed citizens a busy half hour Saturday night, was killed and converted into a pot of steaming, appetizing soup.

Stealthy footsteps and suspicious sounds were heard by persons passing the restaurant of Charles Gordon, shortly after midnight. The police station was notified by telephone and soon officers and citizens armed with revolvers surrounded the store, one of the boldest breaking open the door. With weapons in readiness for instant use the officers cautiously entered the building, where they found a big sea turtle, ambling leisurely about the floor and knocking things over. The turtle was made into soup Sunday.

SUCCESS OF A MEDICINE
All things succeed which fill a real need; that a doctor is kept busy day and night proves his ability and skill; that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is sold in enormous quantities in almost every city, town and hamlet in America and in foreign countries as well proves its merit, and women are found everywhere who tell of health restored by its use.
